

Review card - Special interests

What do you think about social media as a way to talk or read about your special interests?

Do you have any preferred platforms for discussing, reading or learning about your special interests?

Are you part of any Facebook or LinkedIn groups? Why did you join? What do you do in those groups?

Have you had similar or different experiences to those from our prior participants?