

Review card - Autistic community

What do you think about social media as a way to connect with other autistic people?

Do you follow any autism-specific accounts on any social media platform?

Which platforms do you find most useful in interacting with an autistic community?

Have you had similar or different experiences to those from our prior participants?